

Elias Brothers Group

Jeff Sanderson has been named community association representative for the company's contracting division. He is responsible for developing opportunities in Lee County for the painting and restoration group. Sanderson has more than 11 years of experience in the paint and waterproofing industry. He previously was a community association representative for the Sherwin-Williams Co.

